Launch of Free Legal Advice to Bolsover district residents

Chesterfield Law Centre, with support from Bolsover District Council and Derbyshire Primary Care Trust, now offers free legal advice to people in Bolsover district in the following areas of law:

- © Housing and Homelessness—including issues around repairs, access to housing, eviction and repossessions
- © Employment—including issues around unfair dismissal, discrimination, rights in work and breaches of contract, including pay
- © Debt—including rent and mortgage arrears, credit & store card debts and bankruptcy

People in need of legal advice should contact Chesterfield Law Centre by their preferred method where a receptionist will take some basic details.

A trained assessor will return the call to work out what is needed, check eligibility for free legal aid and assess whether the Law Centre can help.

If we can help we will book an appointment at a suitable venue in Bolsover district or arrange for a specialist to make a telephone call back.

If we are unable to help, we will try to provide information about other agencies that can offer assistance.

Please note appointments are only available to individuals eligible for Legal Aid

Please contact us for more details

Chesterfield Law Centre offers appointments throughout Bolsover district. All venues are fully accessible and can provide a hearing loop facility on request.
